

Deuteronomy 34:1-12

Death of Moses

34:1 Then Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho, and the LORD showed him the whole land: Gilead as far as Dan,

34:2 all Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea,

34:3 the Negeb, and the Plain -- that is, the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees -- as far as Zoar.

34:4 The LORD said to him, "This is the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, 'I will give it to your descendants.' I have let you see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there."

34:5 Then Moses, the servant of the LORD, died there in the land of Moab, at the Lord's command.

34:6 He buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth-peor, but no one knows his burial place to this day.

34:7 Moses was one hundred twenty years old when he died; his sight was unimpaired, and his vigor had not abated.

34:8 The Israelites wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days; then the period of mourning for Moses was ended.

34:9 Joshua son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom because Moses had laid his hands on him, and the Israelites obeyed him, doing as the LORD had commanded Moses.

34:10 Never since has there arisen a prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face.

34:11 He was unequalled for all the signs and wonders that the LORD sent him to perform in the land of Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants and his entire land,

34:12and for all the mighty deeds and all the terrifying displays of power that Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

Psalm 90:1-6, 13-17

Show your servants your works

90:1Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations.

90:2Before the mountains were brought forth or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

90:3You turn us back to dust and say, "Turn back, you mortals."

90:4For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is past or like a watch in the night.

90:5You sweep them away; they are like a dream, like grass that is renewed in the morning;

90:6in the morning it flourishes and is renewed; in the evening it fades and withers.

90:13Turn, O LORD! How long? Have compassion on your servants!

90:14Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love, so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

90:15Make us glad as many days as you have afflicted us and as many years as we have seen evil.

90:16Let your work be manifest to your servants and your glorious power to their children.

90:17Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us and prosper for us the work of our hands -- O prosper the work of our hands!

1 Thessalonians 2:1-8

The apostle's concern

2:1You yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our coming to you was not in vain,

2:2but though we had already suffered and been shamefully mistreated at Philippi, as you know, we had courage in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in spite of great opposition.

2:3For our appeal does not spring from deceit or impure motives or trickery,

2:4but, just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the message of the gospel, even so we speak, not to please mortals but to please God, who tests our hearts.

2:5As you know and as God is our witness, we never came with words of flattery or with a pretext for greed,

2:6nor did we seek praise from mortals, whether from you or from others,

2:7though we might have made demands as apostles of Christ. But we were gentle among you, like a nurse tenderly caring for her own children.

2:8So deeply do we care for you that we are determined to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you have become very dear to us.

Matthew 22:34-46

Loving God and neighbor

22:34When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together,

22:35and one of them, an expert in the law, asked him a question to test him.

22:36"Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?"

22:37He said to him, "'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.'

22:38 This is the greatest and first commandment.

22:39 And a second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'

22:40 On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets."

22:41 Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question:

22:42 "What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?" They said to him, "The son of David."

22:43 He said to them, "How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying,

22:44 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet"'?

22:45 "If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?"

22:46 No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.
