NAIDOC Week

Members of the church community are encouraged to attend NAIDOC Week events next week and keep investing time in building connections with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples across the state. As members of the Uniting Church in Australia, we celebrate the 30th Anniversary of The Covenanting Statement on 10th July this year. We as peoples who have chosen to be in relationship with God through the Uniting Church in Australia, should also look to be in curious, supportive and renewing relationships with each other. See the UnitingCare Qld Event Guide for National NAIDOC Week 2024

ANDY'S PLACE

Volunteer News

On Saturday, Rev Susan took some of the community meal volunteers through another training session. This was to help them understand and deal with issues that could arise in dealing with the vulnerable inner city people. Many guests choose to wait some hours in the street before the meal is prepared and the hall open. For some, their life is complicated, the cost of living stretching them to breaking point and their sensitivities are heightened. Training is important for those who volunteer to help out each Saturday, especially the Supervisory team. Thank you to Susan for preparing and delivering the training.

MORE THANK YOU'S

As a congregation we should be proud of the many hours of effort put in by individuals and teams to make life a little more comfortable and welcoming to those attending our meals.

There is a sense of community for the participants.

Not least are the 'behind-the-scene' teams of launderers for tablecloths and aprons, Emily who keeps the website updated, our coordinator who liaises with the Inner City Food Forum and keeps everything rolling along.

Your efforts are appreciated by those who know what it takes to plan, shop for, prepare and cook the meals. For those who set up and take down the tables and chairs in the hall every meal; those who set the tables, serve and clear the plates, those who look after the dishwasher, those who spend time listening and talking with guests when appropriate, those who cheerfully and faithfully attend to their tasks.

Saturday Meal

The number of guests arriving for the Saturday lunch is slowly rising. 117 meals were served on Saturday. Beth, Max and team prepared Corned Beef and vegies with vegan, GF and vegetarian options Butterscoth pudding and ice cream was dessert. All was well received, and again nothing was left over. Even with one short on the cooking team, they delivered a great job.

ANDY'S PLACE

ANDY'S PLACE SHOP NEWS

Supplies are not so readily available now, and milk, either fresh or UHT is having to be purchased. Donations continue to be received for Andy's place, both within the congregation and externally, so there is no pressure on making sensible purchases of needed food and other supplies.

Clothing donations have been generous. Rex is a familiar face in the discount stores from Morayfield to Capalaba.

Our 'shop' also received a lot of attention with most of the clothing distributed, and all the usual toiletries being given out. Pantry items are very popular.

Foodbank has many demands for goods in bulk from the many charities making up food parcels, volunteers providing breakfast in schools etc., so usually there is little available for us to make the Saturday meal and the Thursday breakfast. However, a visit made to 'Second Bite' yielded potatoes, tomatoes, avocado, bread and pantry items.

The new Andy's Place aprons were well received by our cook and hall volunteers. This brings a further sense of belonging and community to our volunteers and guests.

Note- if it is easier for you to donate rather than purchase items, the new BSB details are:
